SOUTHERN COMFORT Newsletter for December, 2007

Hi,

As most of you know we are unable to have our December gig on the next to last Sunday due to Cafe 13 being closed in order prepare for Christmas. However we will be having our get-together on Sunday, December 9.

This will be a special event for the band as we will be having a special guest on banjo, Juergen Hesse. You may remember Juergen as the regular banjoist and business manager of the Sensation Jazz Band at the Lanc. More recently he has been playing as relief banjoist with the Climax Jazz Band.

Also, instead of our usual string bass we will be featuring David Neale on sousaphone. Some of you who saw my other band, the Riverside Ramblers when we played at the Lanc, will know what a fine musician he is. All this is because Brian Day has some other commitment on December 9, and Bill Stewart is visiting family across the pond in Scotland. However, with the help of these old friends we can promise you a very enjoyable afternoon of traditional jazz with a slightly different sound.

Remember the next gig at Cafe 13, Cambridge, is Sunday, December 9, 4 to 7 p.m. Try to get there early to be ensured of your choice of table.

Trevor
